Sir,

With reference to Government Order No. 4255-33 dated 4th March 1907 passing orders re the recovery of puduvat funds without allowing them to become time-barred and observing that the Amildars will be held responsible for the amounts allowed by them to become barred, I have the honor to state that reports have been received from the Amildars of Chellakere, Hiriyur, Jagalur, Molakalmuru and Hosadurga Taluks to the effect that no institutions in their Taluks has puduvat funds at its credit. Replies from the Amildars of Chitaldrug and Holalkere Taluks are still awaited. Strongest reminders have been sent to them and on receipt of their reports I shall report the exact circumstances

2. In the Davanagere Taluk, the temple of Sri Anjaneyaswamy at Kadlabal has a fundwal fund of Rs 93/- and it is reported that the person who borrowed this amount has been paying the interest thereon punctually and nothing is due from him

3 In the Harihar Sub Taluk, the fundwal funds belonging to the temple of Sri Hari-hareswaraswamy at Harihar amount to a sum of Rs 4,317 4 0, out of which Rs 3673/- has been given out to private individuals, on pro-notes and the interest thereon is being regularly recovered except in one instance of a small sum of Rs 30/-. To meet the expenses of the Civil suit filed against the individual who failed to repay the loan, the necessary amount will be advanced from the available balance at the credit of the temple and adjusted in due course. A sum of Rs 181-0-0 is stated by the Dharmadarsis to have been deposited in Government Savings Bank on 10th May 1880 which has since been transferred to the Government of India Pro notes but the available references show that only Rs 167-14-11 is the invested sum under this head. It has not yet been possible to find out how the difference of Rs 13-1-1 has been disposed of. There is a cash balance of Rs 463 4-0 with the Dharmadarsis.

4. A statement showing what amounts are due from each individual and upto what period the interest has been paid is herein attached. No documents have been time-barred.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,
